

John Linsenhardt has lived in Hermitage Hills since 2002. He grew up in west-central Missouri before joining the Navy in 1983. After a four year enlistment as an aircraft mechanic, he put himself through college at CMSU in Warrensburg, earning a Bachelor's degree in Electronics Technology in 1992. Since 1993, he has worked with a worldwide computer company, seven years as a field technician, and since then in Project Management. When he is not doing home remodeling projects, his hobbies include scuba diving and hot air ballooning. He was appointed Chairman by the other trustees and will be using his computer skills to maintain the Hermitage Hills subdivision website and email addresses. He is looking forward to getting the board of trustees active again to maintain and improve our neighborhood.

Dan McKean has lived in Hermitage Hills since 1981. Dan recently retired after 39 years of working in many different positions with the Bridgestone Corporation. He currently enjoys his time fishing, hiking and working on the occasional home project. His prior experiences in the workplace should be helpful in his new position on the Board of Trustees. Dan has enjoyed living in Hermitage Hills and hopes to be able to work with other members of the community to improve our road system and way of life.

Jacob Mohnke has owned several lots on Lazy Oak since 2007. In 2020, he was able to build a new home on those lots where he lives now with his wife Erin and 2 children. Erin works in human resources and Jake is a stay-at-home father. He has have a construction and business background and am generally happy to help where I am able. Keeping our neighborhood safe and beautiful is a big job, and one that we should all pitch in to do. As a resident of Lazy Oak, I am also happy to help add representation on the board for the other property owners of Lazy Oak.

Roseann Locher moved into the subdivision in 2015 after purchasing her first home, along with her husband, Jason. She has worked for Liberty Mutual Insurance since 2013 with prior work experience in automotive repair facilities and prior to that, horticulture, landscape, and greenhouse operations. She graduated in 2008 from Southeast Missouri State University with a Bachelor of Science in Ag-Business Management. She is from a rural background, growing up on a family farm in southeast Missouri. She hopes to be able to use that small town community background as well as her agriculture, landscaping, and horticultural experience to improve the community's common grounds, promoting a more inviting area with better options for utilization and beautification while allowing the subdivision's budget to stay focused on improvement of the road infrastructure.

Casey Cross has lived in the Hermitage Hills Subdivision since 2012 with his wife and son. He grew up in northern Indiana. After high school, he graduated from Purdue University, with a Bachelor's degree in Organizational Leadership and Supervision. He moved to the St. Louis area shortly after graduation working in several fields. For the last 5 yrs. Casey has been a Real Estate professional. In his free time he enjoys spending time with his family, fishing bass tournaments and is an avid hunter. As a Board trustee he looks forward to utilizing his extensive knowledge of the Real Estate market to help Hermitage Hills improve and continue to thrive.
